JOHN ROGERS
John Rogers, age 87, died suddenly Tuesday at his home in Patmos. He was an Elder of the Church of Christ, a retired farmer and a longtime resident of Patmos.
Survivors include two daughters, Muriel Black of Houston and Mrs. Jimmie Costello of Ft. Smith; three sons, Carl of Dallas, Paul of Irving, Texas and Floyd of Lewisville, Arkansas; one brother Charlie of Risco, Missouri; several grandchildren and great grandchildren. Funeral services will be Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at Patmos Church of Christ. Interment will be in Memory Gardens. Jack Ashworth is the officiating minister. Arrangements are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home of Lewisville.

Mrs. Winifred Henrichs, co-publisher of "Sunshine Magazine," an inspirational periodical since 1924, died Wednesday at the age of 91.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — John W. Owens, former editor in chief of the Sunpapers and winner of a Pulitzer Prize in Journalism in 1937, died Wednesday of a heart attack at the age of 83.

WOODLAND HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Actor Tommy Noonan, brother of actor John Ireland, died of a malignant brain tumor Wednesday at age 46. Noonan was remembered for his humorous portrayal of Marilyn Monroe's bumbling suitor in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Michael T. "Mickey" Sullivan, well known circus band leader who was associated for many years with the Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey Circus, was found dead in his room Wednesday. He owned the Mickey Sullivan circus band that toured the United States and Canada.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president emeritus of Ohio State University and former professor of government and law at Harvard, died Wednesday at age 82. During his tenure as Ohio State president from 1940 to 1956 the university grew from an enrollment of 13,073 to more than 30,000.

Wants Board to Have Hire, Fire Power

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jerry B. Craft of Jonesboro told fellow Welfare Board members Wednesday that the board should be reorganized and given the power to hire and fire the director of the Welfare Department.

Craft made the proposal at a dinner party here the board staged to honor him on the expiration of his six-year term at the stormy post.

Under Craft's proposal, the board would have the same power as the state Game and Fish Commission and Highway Commission to remove the department commissioner.

The board members would be appointed by the governor. The board members would then name a commissioner. The governor could only remove the commissioner through a special hearing.

The plan was immediately endorsed by Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock, who has been at odds with various board members since he took the post early last year.

The board objected principally with Blaylock's firing Welfare Department workers across the state. The board, however, had seldom met before Blaylock became commissioner.

Craft said his proposal was to take the "politicizing" out of the Welfare Department.

Marion Burton, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's executive secretary, said he would see whether the governor would agree to place the proposal in his call for a special session of the legislature next month.

Dollar Drain Cut Plan Is in Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is running into trouble in its efforts to cut the international dollar drain this year by $3 billion.

Some government officials have already conceded privately the goal in some areas of the program will be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to meet.

But perhaps the sorest note in the entire picture is the deteriorating trade position which officials blame on inflation at home, strikes and the threat of

Burial Group Seeks Refund of $42,421

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A $42,421 tax refund for 1962 is being sought by the Citizens Burial Insurance Co. of West Memphis from the Internal Revenue Service on the grounds that the taxes were erroneously assessed. The company also charged in a suit filed in U. S. District Court that additional income tax assessments for 1961, assessed by IRS amounting to $148,374 which it said was accepted, and that it met the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code to be treated as a life insurance company for tax purposes.

Grant for DeQueen Port

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine Arkansas airports were allocated a total of $566,841 by the Federal Aviation Administration for construction and improvement projects.

The matching funds were among allocations totaling $74.7 million for 397 airports for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Allocations in Arkansas were: De Queen and Sevier County received a joint allocation of $63,518; DeWitt $81,950; Lake Village $64,969; Little Rock $182,733; Pine Bluff $61,000; Rogers $8,140; Springfield $32,599; Walnut Ridge $12,150 and West Memphis $59,782.

all but two entrances.
There was some obvious student dissatisfaction with the Students for a Democratic Society, which organized the protest. About 200 persons gathered in front of Kirk's office windows and chanted "The S.D.S. must go!"

Earlier a faculty committee met in emergency session on the student demands and recommended that construction on the gymnasium be halted but that ties to the I.D.A. be continued.

The current protest began Tuesday noon and escalated later when the militant students blocked Acting Dean Henry Coleman and two associated in Coleman's Hamilton Hall office.

About 5 a.m. Wednesday the Negroes in the group asked the white students to leave, asserting they were not committed to radical action.

The group of white students then went to Los Library where they pushed past security guards and took over Kirk's office, hurling papers and books to the floor, damaging fixtures in a private bathroom and pasting signs on a window reading: "Liberated Area. Be Free to Join Us."

Coleman was released along with William Kahn, university proctor, and Daniel Karilinsky, a college public relations man, in the afternoon. Coleman said they had been well treated.

Rockefeller Emissaries Push West

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two emissaries for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are heading into the Midwest today in a bid to generate a Republican presidential draft.

Nonaligned party members generally doubt they'll succeed. But Rockefeller himself says he thinks the draft movement for him is gaining momentum—and says he's ready to run.

The governor, asked Wednesday whether he's already jogging if not running, replied: "I haven't got my feet in concrete, I'll tell you that."

The emissaries are Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., and William E. Miller, the 1964 Republican candidate for vice president. Their first stop is Minneapolis, Minn., where Gov. Harold LeVander is an ally.

The trip is the first of a series intended by Rockefeller backers to stir up enthusiasm for a draft among national convention delegates.

But uninvolved party members generally think the best Morton and Miller can hope for are some assurances that favorite and uncommitted delegations will stand fast against a possible blitz at the convention by Nixon forces.

Rockefeller told newsmen in a Capitol Hill hallway the draft movement is enlisting more people "and they're active and they're raising more money."

"I would say that it's gaining momentum," he said. "I think the delegates are looser than people think."

Morton and Miller planned to fly to Des Moines later today, and back to Chicago for an overnight stop and breakfast meeting Friday.

After lunch in St. Louis, Mo., Friday, they hop to Topeka, Kan., for a dinner to be presided over by Sen. James B. Pearson, R-Kan. They're scheduled to be in Detroit, Mich., Saturday.

Rockefeller was in Washington to propose congressional enactment of "national universal health insurance" and hospital cost controls.

Contributory health insurance has largely succeeded in the case of Medicare, he told the Senate Government Operations Committee. But he said serious shortcomings in paying medical care strictly out of tax revenues have been seen in the case of Medicaid, the health plan for the indigent.

Negroes Win Concessions at Boston U.

BOSTON (AP) — A sit-in by some 300 Negro students behind chained doors at Boston University has ended with a promise by President Arland F. Christ-Janer to increase the number of Negro students and teachers and to offer a course in Afro-American history.

A 12-hour demonstration in which the students took over the administration building was halted Wednesday night after Christ-Janer made a point-by-point reply promising to work for most of their demands.

The university president agreed that the planned Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. chair of social ethics should be reserved for a Negro professor, that 10 recently established King scholarships be designated for Negro graduate students and that "every effort will be made to recruit Negro scholars at every professional rank."

The demands were made by the university's Afro-American students society, known as UMOJA, a word meaning "unity" in Swahili.

On only one point did Christ-Janer express less than complete agreement. This was the students' proposal that the School of Theology building be named for Dr. King, a 1955 graduate of the school.

He did say that "every effort will be exerted to admit up to 100 Negro students to the freshman class in the fall of 1968, under some financial aid plan based on need." He added that the university "is prepared to expand its enrollment at all levels for the academic year 1968-69 to include an additional 100 qualified Negro students not needing financial assistance."

The dean of students, Staton R. Curtis, said there are 14,000 students in the university and 900 to 1,000 faculty members. He said the number of Negroes in either group is unknown because such information is not included on records.

Tables Set Up for Those Filing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Hotel Marion in downtown Little Rock, where more politics purportedly transpire than at the state Capitol, will not witness this year the traditional last day filing ceremonies by political candidates.

Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said Wednesday he would file candidates on last day and a half in the foyer of the state Capitol to facilitate the filing of last-minute candidates.

Bryant invited both Democratic and Republican parties to use foyer space to collect fees from potential candidates next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Foodstuffs for Tornado Area

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock said Wednesday that the department had sent nearly 241,000 pounds of foodstuffs to tornado ravaged Greenwood.

Blaylock told the state Welfare Board at a meeting here that the department was ready to take up the slack if the Red Cross curtailed any of its activities in the area, which was struck Friday.

Taking Pain Out of Tax Paying

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Marion County Treasurer John Dokins has found a way to take some of the pain out of paying taxes. From now until the May 6 deadline, residents can charge their personal property and real estate taxes on an Indianapolis bank's credit card.

the Polish pressure for selection of Warsaw—a site already spurned by the United States on the ground Poland is an ally of Hanoi's—points up what they feel is apparent: That North Vietnam regards selection of a site as an issue of substantial importance.

U.S. officials say there seem to be several reasons for this. One is that North Vietnam believes that by manipulating public opinion pressures against the Johnson administration it can force the U.S. to agree to a place agreeable to Hanoi and painful to Washington.

Another reason, U.S. officials believe, is that if the site is unfavorable enough to U.S. interest and disliked enough by South Vietnam the issue may be used to drive a wedge between the Washington and Saigon governments—which is one reason why the White House and State Department have been nervous about the site selection process from the beginning.

A third motivation suggested by American officials is that North Vietnam feels it is important to determine at the outset how much power it can wield through the successful marshaling of the worldwide desire for ending the war—on a specific issue of peace negotiations such as the problem of selecting a place to begin meeting.

Negro Files for Seat in Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Rev. C. L. Bachus, 30, Negro pastor of a Baptist church at Helena, filed Wednesday as a Democratic candidate for Pos. 1 in House District 20, which is Phillips and Lee counties.

The position is held by Rep. Marcus Howell, who hasn't filed. Ernest Cunningham, also of Helena, has filed on the Democratic ticket for the seat.

Rep. Gayle Windsor Jr., 47, of Little Rock filed for a fifth term in the House, seeking re-election to Pos. 3 in District 22, which is Perry and Pulaski counties.

Carl Fowler, 53, a farmer and industrial worker from Friendship, filed for Pos. 3 in House District 32, which is Saline and Hot Spring counties. Rep. Charles O. Smithers of Beaton holds the position now.

Prosecutor Lloyd Henry, 44, of Searcy filed for re-election in the 1st Judicial District composed of White, Woodruff, St. Francis, Lee and Phillips counties.

Mr. Thomason is a graduate of Southern State College, Magnolia, and is now a student in the University of Arkansas School of Law.

The wedding will be an event of July 5 in the First Baptist Church of Hope.

School Case at Marvell Set May 3

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing has been set for May 3 on amendments filed by the Marvell School Board to its desegregation plan to comply with a February 6 ruling by the U.S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis.

The plan has been presented to U.S. District Judge Oren Harris of El Dorado, who said objections of Negro plaintiffs also would be considered at that time.

The Circuit Court ruled that Marvell could continue its freedom of choice desegregation program but ordered the district to step up its faculty desegregation. It also called for revisions in sections of the plan dealing with bus transportation and notices to students to their right to transfer.

The amendments to the plan included mandatory faculty desegregation by 1970 if "volunteers do not produce the degree of racial balance described satisfactory" in the amendment.

The board also said it would re-evaluate bus routes after the freedom of choice forms were in to decide whether changes in busing were necessary to "serve their mission of transporting the students."

"While the routes will not be manipulated in order to maximize the amount of racial mixing in each bus, neither will they be designed to discourage desegregation," the amendment said.

The third amendment said, "Written notices of transfer right will be distributed to each student annually on the first day of the choice period in May."

WIN AT BRIDGE

Down Two Not Total Loss

By Oswald and James Jacoby

The opening event of each national bridge championship is a nationwide charity game in which players all over the country play the same hands. These hands are predealt by computer and, since each player is competing against his own group, the top score for the country is likely to go anywhere and usually does go to some small town.

This does not mean that the hands aren't tests of expert skill. Board No. 7 found East-West vulnerable and North-South not vulnerable, with West invariably starting with a spade pre-empt. When West started with four spades,

NORTH		25

North would double for business. South would leave the double in and, assuming any reasonable defense, West would make his own eight tricks and go down two for minus 500. He would be unhappy, because 500 is more than the value of a nonvulnerable game, but it would not be a total loss.

The bidding in the box shows how a mere three-spade opening by West leads to a diamond slam by South. West will open the king of spades and, while South won't like his slam contract, he should make it.

The play isn't really very complicated. He must win the spade lead and play a trump. West will show out and South will have to decide to end-play West if he wants to make his contract. The end play develops if South plays dummy's ace and king of hearts and times the whole play so that he will ruff two of dummy's hearts and eventually play out all dummy's trumps in order to wind up with the jack of

Same Tactics by Humphrey, Rockefeller

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York are employing the same political tactic in delaying formal declarations of candidacy. But the effect on their presidential chances is notably different.

For Humphrey, the delay has been beneficial; for Rockefeller, it has complicated his already considerable problems. Humphrey supporters are pleased with the way things have gone since President Johnson withdrew from the race and it became evident the vice president would challenge Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy for the Democratic nomination.

Since there is no doubt Humphrey intends to run—he's expected to announce that Saturday—his backers have been setting up a national campaign organization and rounding up convention support. Meanwhile, their candidate goes about his business as vice president, making appearances around the country.

His situation has been greatly simplified because filing deadlines for most presidential primaries had passed by the

U.S. Wanted to Avoid Tight Money Weapon in Inflation Battle

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government is battling inflation with the one weapon it most wanted to avoid—tight money.

But there are increasing signs in Congress that two big guns—a tax hike and cuts in federal spending—may soon be added to the arsenal of weapons against rising prices.

Some government officials are convinced Congress is now in a mood to act on taxes although the details—including the spending cuts on which con-time Johnson withdrew, freeing them to concentrate on nonprimary states which elect most convention delegates.

Rockefeller's supporters are not entirely satisfied with the way things are going despite their optimistic statements about the support the draft-Rockefeller movement is getting around the country.

Although it's known Rockefeller wants the GOP presidential nomination and intends to fight former Vice President Richard M. Nixon for it, many politicians have told the Rockefeller camp they cannot support the New Yorker unless he makes his candidacy publicly clear.

gressmen have insisted — still must be worked out. It's doubtful, however, that Uncle Sam will begin collecting higher taxes from individual Americans—even if Congress finally approves—before July 1, nine months after President Johnson wanted them to take effect.

In proposing the 10 per cent income tax surcharge last Aug. 3, Johnson indicated a desire to avoid a recurrence of the tight-money policies which marked 1966 and sent interest rates to what then were record highs.

He asked for the surcharge to take effect for individuals last Oct. 1 and for corporations retroactive to last July 1.

But when Congress refused to act last year, the Independent Federal Reserve Board did. Its hand was forced by devaluation of the British pound last November. It raised the borrowing rate to 4.5 per cent to keep money on this side of the Atlantic. Still, the nation's money policy was relatively easy even then.

It wasn't until after Congress adjourned in December that the Federal Reserve moved deliberately toward a credit crackdown—and then in cautious and moderate maneuvers.

Last week's increase in the

discount rate to 5.5 per cent was another step in that maneuvering to control inflation. This is the rate banks must pay when they borrow money from the Federal Reserve. Other interest rates are pegged upward from it.

Interest rates in some areas now surpass even their 1966 levels and the trend is still upward. There's no guarantee that credit would ease immediately if taxes were raised, although this is assumed in some quarters.

$2 Million in Equipment Is Damaged

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—About $2 million worth of IBM equipment was extensively damaged Wednesday when the transport truck carrying it careened into a bridge and plunged into a creek about 11 miles south of here on Interstate 40.

The driver of the truck, Wesley Miller, 38, and a passenger, William Passarella, 29, both of Philadelphia, Pa., were treated at a hospital here for minor injuries.

Miller said he was swerving back into his lane to avoid a car approaching from behind in the other lane when he lost control. He said the truck was en route from Durham, N.C., to Los Angeles.

Flood Paces Cardinals to Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jim Bunning made it home safely after a cold night in Pittsburgh but Curt Flood was turned away at the gate after a hot time in St. Louis.

Bunning posted his first pitching victory at home as a Pirate Wednesday night, subduing the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-3 in 11 innings and California's Fred Forster with late-inning relief help from Elroy Face.

Flood, the National League's hottest hitter, drove in five runs with two singles and a triple as the Cardinals slugged the Cincinnati Reds 7-0 — but failed to score for the first time in 13 games this year.

Three other scheduled NL games were postponed because of bad weather.

Cleveland opened Detroit 2-0, Baltimore beat Minnesota 7-3, Oakland tripped New York 4-3 in 11 innings and California trimmed Washington 6-1 in American League games.

Bunning, obtained by the Pirates in a winter trade with Philadelphia, yielded a three-run homer by Jim Lefebvre in the first inning and then blanked the Dodgers until the eighth, when he aggravated a pulled groin muscle and left the game.

The victory was Bunning's second of the young season against one set-back. He beat the Dodgers 3-0 at Los Angeles, then lost to San Francisco 5-2 at home last Saturday before Wednesday night's struggle, which began in 43 degree weather and ended with the thermometer at 38.

Gene Alley reached first on an error by Dodgers shortstop Zoilo Versalles in the sixth inning, moved around on Roberto Clemente's single and a ground out and scored the tie-breaking run on Bill Mazeroski's second sacrifice fly of the game.

The Pirates had pushed over three runs in the fourth, tying it 3-3. Alley tripled and scored on an infield out. Center fielder Willie Davis dropped Willie Stargell's long fly for a three-base error; Donn Clendenon walked and Mazeroski's first sacrifice fly sent home Stargell before Manny Mota's run-scoring single capped the rally.

Flood stroked a two-run single in the second inning, singled another run across in the sixth and lashed a two-run triple in the eighth as the Cardinals breezed to their third straight victory behind the five-hit pitching of Ray Washburn.

Records Are Expected to Fall at Meet

Relays Director Bob Kueres claims the field, headed by Kansas' sensational Jim Ryun, has the best over-all balance in years.

Ryun demonstrated last weekend he apparently has recovered from a leg injury that had caused some concern about his Olympic chances. Ryun in competing for the first time since pulling a hamstring muscle March 25, set a Kansas Relays record of 3:42.8 in the 1,500 meters.

Cleveland Ends Tigers' Win Streak

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Steve Hargan was twice as good as Cloyd Wright and neither was very good for the balking averages of the Detroit Tigers and Washington Senators.

Hargan hurled a brilliant one-hitter Wednesday night as Cleveland ended Detroit's nine-game winning streak 2-0. A couple of hours later, Wright gave up two hits, pitching California to a 6-1 victory over Washington.

In other American League games, Baltimore ripped Minnesota 7-3 and Oakland tripped New York 4-3 in 11 innings.

In the National League, Pittsburgh shared Los Angeles 4-3 and St. Louis tagged Cincinnati 7-0. San Francisco at Philadelphia, Houston at New York and Atlanta at Chicago all were postponed by rain.

Hargan faced only 28 batters, permitting just two walks and Jim Northrup's leadoff single in the third. He struck out seven Tigers, who hadn't lost since opening day. He also scored Cleveland's second run of the game when left fielder Willie Horton and shortstop Ray Oyler collided under his pop fly in the seventh inning and the ball fell for a triple. Leon Wagner's pinch single drove in the run.

Horton was carried off the field on a stretcher and preliminary examination showed he had suffered a concussion. He was taken to Shaker Medical Center for further examinations.

Wright didn't look like he'd survive the first inning against the Senators. He walked the leadoff batter, surrendered a single to Hank Allen and then walked the next two hitters, forcing in a run.

But then, with the bases still loaded and none out, he struck out the side and then allowed just two more runners the rest of the way.

Home runs by Roger Repoz and Paul Schaaf gave the Angels the lead and then Schaaf and Bob Rodgers each singled home two more runs in the late innings to wrap it up.

Baltimore pitcher Jim Hardin unloaded a two-run triple tying the game and then Dave May's double drove him in with the lead run as the Orioles battered Dean Chance and beat the Twins.

But Baltimore needed a lucky bounce to escape a sixth inning jam. The bases were loaded with two out when reliever Eddie Watt uncorked a pitch that sailed over the head of Cesar Tovar, the Minnesota batter.

Ted Uhlendorf, the runner at third, started jogging home. But the ball took a hard carom off the concrete backstop and bounced right back to catcher Elrod Hendricks, who tagged Uhlendorf out, ending the threat.

The Athletics nipped the Yankees in the 11th inning when John Donaldson's two-out single delivered Bert Campaneris.

Oakland had tied the game in the sixth when Sal Bando drew a bases-loaded walk, wiping out a 3-2 Yankee lead built on Mickey Mantle's second home run of the season and Roy White's two-run single.

Campaneris walked opening the 11th and came around on a walk to Reggie Jackson, a stolen base and Donaldson's hit.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Negro athletes, who threatened to boycott all sports at the University of California, today are praising the elevation of freshman coach Jim Padgett to head basketball coach and appointment of Negro Earl Robinson as his assistant.

But they reserved judgment on the football situation, where they had demanded in their eight-point ultimatum the discharge of two coaching aides, Bill Button and Joe Marvin.

Bobby Smith, spokesman for the black athletes group of 40 when their demands were made in mid-basketball season, said, "I was very glad to hear" of the coaching appointments.

Padgett succeeds Rene Herrera, who resigned with one year to go on his contract. The Negroes had demanded Herrera's ouster.

Robinson succeeds Padgett, moving to California from Lafayette College in nearby Oakland.

Bob Presley, sophomore basketball star center who was suspended and quickly reinstated last January by Herrera, said he was elated at the change.

Presley's reinstatement precipitated a walkout of white basketball players. They said Herrera had been ordered by the administration to lift the suspension.

Defensive Players Draw Praise

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles handed out a few compliments after a game — type scrimmage here Wednesday that saw sophomore quarterback Bill Montgomery guide the offense for two touchdowns.

But the compliments went to receivers and defensive players. Broyles singled out tailback Russell Cody, who scored on a one-yard plunge over tackle caping a six-play series directed by Montgomery. Mike Sigman drew praise for his receiver ability.

Halfbacks Dennie Berner and Jerry Moore and linebacker Lynn Garner were cited for their defensive action. Berner scored when he intercepted a pass by quarterback John Eichler.

The other scores, Eichler passed 30-yards to Max Peacock, who ran it for another 30 yards for the tally and Montgomery ran five plays before handing off to Bill Burnett, who slashed over right tackle for seven yards and the touchdown.

Conigliaro's Comeback Hopes Dim

BOSTON (AP) — Tony Conigliaro's hopes of a possible baseball comeback as a pitcher are up in the air at the moment.

Conigliaro told newsmen Wednesday that doctors have warned him not to undergo any heavy physical activity at this time because it might detach the retina of his injured left eye. He indicated that this put a question mark on his thoughts of trying to return to baseball as a pitcher.

Tony C. was injured last Aug. 18 when hit high on the cheekbone by a pitch by Jack Hamilton of the California Angels.

Lakers Win to Even Up Playoff

By LARRY ELDRIDGE
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Jerry West and Elgin Baylor led the Los Angeles Lakers to their equalizing victory over the Boston Celtics, but both coaches agree the key to the game came when these two old pros were on the bench.

"Those 'red shirts' did a hell of a job," Laker Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff said of the makeshift quintet which kept Boston at bay late in the third period and early in the fourth.

Los Angeles led 80-69 when Baylor went to the bench after drawing his fifth personal foul with 4:02 remaining in the third period. A few minutes later West also sat down for a needed rest, but the Lakers held on for a 123-113 victory to square their best-of-7 National Basketball Association championship series at one win apiece.

"It was a calculated risk, keeping them both on the bench," Van Breda Kolff said, "but Elgin was in foul trouble and Jerry was dragging."

Tom Hawkins and Archie Clark were the only starters in the five-man group which did the job. Joining them were reserves Erwin Mueller, Mel Counts and Fred Crawford.

The scene now shifts to Los Angeles for the third game Friday night and the fourth Sunday night.

In the American Basketball Association, New Orleans, the Western Division winner, took a 2-1 lead over Eastern Division champion Pittsburgh with a 109-101 victory at home.

Red Robbins sparked New Orleans with 30 points while Chico Vaughn topped Pittsburgh with 27 points.

New Orleans will try to take its third straight tonight on home grounds before going to Pittsburgh Saturday night for the fifth game.

Villanova Could Win Eight Races

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Penn Relays officials are saying that Villanova could win five of the eight major relay races this weekend.

The 74th annual relay carnival will be run at Franklin Field Friday and Saturday with 751 schools — colleges, junior colleges, high schools and elementary schools — and 6,533 athletes entered at last count.

Villanova, the NCAA indoor track champion, is entered in every relay but the 440 and figures strongly in most. No team has ever won five relays in the history of the meet.

Threat to Olympics Is Over

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — South Africa is officially out of the Olympics and the threat of a multinational boycott of the Games is over.

Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, confirmed Wednesday that enough votes have been received from IOC members to exclude the strictly segregated country from the Mexico City Games this October.

Brundage said 54 of the 71 IOC members had voted on an Executive Board recommendation not to invite South Africa to the Games and that 41 were in favor. Only a simple majority, 36, was needed.

Brundage cited "explosive conditions throughout the world" and "actual danger if a South African team appeared at the Games" as reasons for the Executive Board recommendation, but this was generally viewed as a face-saving device.

SOLUNAR TABLES

By RICHARD ALDEN KNIGHT

The schedule of Solunar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from Richard Alden Knight's SOLUNAR TABLES. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major Periods are shown in boldface type. These begin at the times shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Use Central Standard time.

American Loop Talks 2 Divisions

CHICAGO (AP) — The American League will study a two-division, six-club schedule for 1969 at a meeting today but at least one official does not see a definite vote on such a plan at this time.

The junior circuit will add Seattle and Kansas City in expanding to 12 teams next season. Last week the National League also approved expansion to 12 teams for 1969 with two new members yet to be chosen among five bidders—San Diego, Buffalo, Dallas-Fort Worth, Montreal and Milwaukee.

General Manager Ed Short of the Chicago White Sox indicated that there still is uncertainty that the National League will match the American League's 12-club setup in 1969.

Short said if the National fails to expand to 12 clubs next year, the American probably will delay its two-division plan.

The plan reportedly favors this divisional split guided by geographical lines:

Western Division—Chicago, Minnesota, California Angels, Oakland, Seattle and Kansas City.

Eastern Division—Washington, Baltimore, New York, Boston, Cleveland and Detroit.

There would be division playoffs with the over-all winner entering the World Series.

Lenny Moore Retires From Pro Football

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lenny Moore, one of the greatest runner-pass catchers football has ever known, will become a telecaster of National Football League games.

The 12-year veteran will retire from the Baltimore Colts to join the staff of Columbia Broadcasting System.

Torres Hurdled LL Teams to World Title

NEW YORK (AP) — When Hector Torres pitched the Monterrey team to the Little League World Series title at Williamsport, Pa. in 1958 he won instant fame in two nations.

Mexico was astir with excitement about the feats of the 12-year-old pitcher and the kids from Monterrey. The New York Yankees hosted the team at Yankee Stadium, President Eisenhower congratulated them and television spread their fame far and wide.

Few people realize that this same Hector Torres now is the rookie shortstop of the Houston Astros, scrapping to establish a foothold in the major leagues. In the intervening years, Hector has been the property of the San Francisco Giants, the California Angels and now the Astros.

Houston traded Sonny Jackson, its regular shortstop, to Atlanta last winter and decided to go the route with Torres, despite a good-field-no hit label.

In the first few games, Torres led the Astros at bat but the pitchers have begun to catch up with him and he is down to .268, still considerably above his lifetime .216 for six years in the minors.

"I feel more pressure now than I did 10 years ago," said Torres on a visit to Shea Stadium. "After all, I was only 12 then and didn't know how much it all meant."

Manbags May Stop the Jokes About What the Lady Carries in Purse
By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — The
jokes about what a lady carries in her pocketbook will probably stop. People may quit pointing out that women control the pursestrings of the nation.
Handbags are now also being made for men. Manbags, they are called.
You may not recognize your male friends, through. If he is shy, he may choose a style disguised as a camera case dancing from his shoulder. On the other hand, a bolder man may make no pretense about his
two-tone, canvas shoulder-
strapped, everything holder.
Besides canvas, the manbags
also are made of rugged elephant hide. "I was very careful not to use anything that smacked of a woman's handbag
design," said Sam Smith, a gray-eyed North Carolinian who created them for the 90-year-old
H. Margolin Co.
The tall man in a black snug-gly-fitted Nehru suit had just test piloted a canvas and brass
shoulder bag a dozen blocks
down Fifth Avenue.
Smith believes these are natural progression in the menswear revolution that started a short time ago with turtle-necks.
"With suits fitting close to the body and with pockets disappearing, a man has to have something else for his belonging to keep from looking like he's smuggling grapefruit."
European men already have

NEW YORK (AP) — The
jokes about what a lady carries
in her pocketbook will probably stop. People may quit pointing out that women control the
pursestrings of the nation.
Handbags are now also being made for men. Manbags, they are called.
You may not recognize your male friends, through. If he is
shy, he may choose a style disguised as a camera case dancing from his shoulder. On the other hand, a bolder man may
make no pretense about his
two-tone, canvas shoulder-
strapped, everything holder.
Besides canvas, the manbags
also are made of rugged elephant hide. "I was very careful
not to use anything that
smacked of a woman's handbag
design," said Sam Smith, a gray-eyed North Carolinian who created them for the 90-year-old
H. Margolin Co.
The tall man in a black snug-gly-fitted Nehru suit had just
test piloted a canvas and brass
shoulder bag a dozen blocks
down Fifth Avenue.
Smith believes these are natural progression in the mens-
wear revolution that started a short time ago with turtle-necks.
"With suits fitting close to the
body and with pockets disappearing, a man has to have
something else for his belonging to keep from looking like he's
smuggling grapefruit."

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. WashburnExpansion Plans for U.S. Plywood-
Champion Papers

U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers which owns a million-dollar mill site near McNab in our county but switched the projected plant to Alabama last year is still expanding, according to trade reports. But the expansion program doesn't include Arkansas so far.

Tuesday's Wall Street Journal reported that Weldwood of Canada, Ltd., a Plywood-Champion subsidiary, will build an 80-million-dollar pulp and paper mill at Quesnel, British Columbia.

But this doesn't necessarily mean a switch from development of the Hempstead county site. The Canadian venture was projected before the Plywood-Champion merger, at a time when U.S. Plywood had no paper production. Plywood, according to the Wall Street Journal, had arranged with Price Co., major Canadian paper-maker, to build a mill in partnership.

Since the merger with Champion Papers, however, the consolidated company has cancelled the deal with Price and is going to build the mill on its own.

An April 27 bulletin from Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, Chattanooga, Tenn., of which The Star is a member, also mentions U. S. Plywood-Champion Papers expansion plans. SNPA reports a company announcement of an agreement to purchase 180,000 acres of timberland in Texas.

Plywood-Champion, SNPA continues, now owns half a million acres in Texas, and a forest products complex in East Texas—including a pulp and paper and bark plant at Pasadena and a plywood plant at Diboll.

None of this has much direct bearing on the Plywood-Champion site at McNab in our county except to establish the fact that the consolidated company is indeed expanding its production facilities. It was reported last year when the projected McNab mill was switched to Alabama that the firm would build at least two new mills and that the McNab site might be reconsidered after the new Alabama plant gets into production about 1970.

Therefore these expansion reports give us continued hope. The Canadian mill announcement is no substitute for the McNab venture, for the Canadian project dates back prior to Plywood's consolidation with Champion. Effect of the Texas land purchases, however, is anyone's guess.

The most hopeful circumstances for Plywood-Champion building at McNab are these:

U.S. Plywood had before its consolidation no paper-making facilities whatever, and Champion, while a maker of fine papers, had no production of newsprint—the coarse white paper that newspapers print on.

At least that has been my information all the years I have been buying newspaper. The Star holds a charter contract with Southland Paper Mills, Lufkin, Texas, since its beginning in 1940. Champion was back then a world-famous maker of fine papers and of chemistry for paper-making. For years it supplied our Lufkin mill with chemical components, Lufkin adding its own chemical facilities only within the last decade.

Therefore it is reasonable to assume that the combined Plywood-Champion firm is in short supply on newsprint, is expanding to cover that shortage—and McNab may well figure in plans for the future. This area has one of the fastest pine-growing potentials in the world, and coupled with Millwood Reservoir's water supply, makes the eventual construction of a big paper mill at McNab virtually certain by some one.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Walter Credit, 18, of Mayflower was sentenced Wednesday to 15 years in the state penitentiary after being convicted of the second-degree murder of Henry Lewis Perkins, 16, of North Little Rock.

Perkins was stabbed to death June 24, 1967, outside a North Little Rock cafe, following a scuffle with Credit.

King Slayer
Suspect Held
in Mexico

By CHARLES GREEN.
Associated Press Writer
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexican authorities questioned today a U.S. citizen they said resembles the man wanted on a charge of slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., then released him without pressing any charges.

Daniel David Kennedy of Baltimore, who said he was on a walking tour of the State of Sonora, denied any connection with King's death. An FBI agent, identified only as Mr. Smith, said there was no resemblance between Kennedy and the suspect, James Earl Ray, according to police in the city of Hermosillo.

L. Roberto Fletcher of the judicial police in Caborca, Sonora, had taken Kennedy into custody from a Caborca hotel.

In Baltimore, Kennedy's mother, Pearl E. Kennedy, said, "There is just no connection. He doesn't even look like him (Ray)."

"It was impossible for him to do it," said his mother in a prepared statement.

Agents of the Sonora state police were en route to Caborca to return the man to Hermosillo, the state capital, Fletcher said. He added that FBI agents were on their way to Hermosillo from Arizona, but in Phoenix, John Mull, in charge of the FBI in Arizona, said he had heard nothing from Mexican authorities and none of his agents were en route to Hermosillo.

Fletcher said he picked the man up about 6 p.m. Wednesday in a cafe in Caborca, which is about 80 miles southwest of Nogales, Ariz. The officer said he took the man in because of his similarity to published photographs of Ray.

Fletcher said the man crossed the border at Nogales on April 7 and told him he had walked to Caborca.

Police in Ciudad Victoria detained another man briefly 10 days ago because he fit the general description of Ray. There have also been reports from several other Mexican cities of persons spotting men resembling Ray.

The FBI announced April 17 that it was seeking a man identified as Eric Starvo Galt in connection with King's slaying in Memphis, Tenn., April 4.

Two days later, the bureau said a "systematic and exhaustive search" through its fingerprint files revealed that Galt and Ray, a 40-year-old drifter and prison escapee, were the same man.

Ray fled from the Missouri Penitentiary on April 23, 1967, while he was serving the seventh year of a 20-year sentence for a market holdup and auto theft in St. Louis.

You Have to Be Honest
in Picture Making Now, That Confuses Many

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The script for a two-hour movie only runs to about 140 pages.

Held in the hand and carelessly thumbled through, it doesn't look very impressive. It isn't even printed in living color.

But it can literally be worth thousands of times its weight in gold. For in the film industry a script is something like a blueprint of a multimillion-dollar production may depend upon whether the words upon its pages have impact.

"You have to be honest in picture making for a change," said Peter Stone, "and that is confusing to a lot of people who have never tried to be honest."

One of the newer word wizards in the industry, Peter scored big with his first film script, "Charade," and he and cowriter Frank Tarloff won Oscars with a second try, "Father Goose."

Stone teamed up with Tarloff again to write "The Secret War of Harry Frigg," and since then he has battled out "Sweet Charity" and "Skin Game."

For a fellow only 38 that's setting a fast pace.

Public Worried Over
Issue of Law, Order
More Than Tax, War

By G. C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's attention is riveted on urban rioting rather than the war or tax issues, some 50 congressmen report in a survey following an Easter vacation among their constituents.

From coast to coast—whether urban, suburban or rural area—the issue of law and order far overrides worries about Vietnam, a tax hike prospect, inflation and government spending, the returning congressmen told a random Associated Press sampling.

"The people are scared," said Rep. Delbert L. Latta, R-Ohio. "They want law enforcement and not appeasement," said Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes, D-Fla.

"They are disgusted with the repetition of demands for more and more billions to be expended on slum areas as a cure for city problems."

A New England congressman who has supported civil rights and urban aid programs—and who asked not to be identified—said: "The red-neck Rotarian crowd in my district shows so little understanding of the racial crisis that I refuse to listen to them."

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., reported as much division among whites as between Negroes and whites.

"The little lady with pen in hand who writes and wires my office wants more laws and more money because the white man abused the Negro's grandfathers," he said.

"The man in the street, however, says enforce the law," Aiken continued. "He has nothing good to say about the rioters."

Rep. J. Edward Roush, D-Ind., said he sensed that the people in his district were determined to combat major domestic problems following the violence ignited after Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated April 4.

"I sense a feeling of sadness in the whole thing," Roush said. "People are saying, 'What a terrible thing to happen in America.'"

"I believe it's made them more sensitive to the fact there are problems to which we must address ourselves in America," Roush added.

He said that before King's slaying and the April riots, many people were calling for force to "clamp down on these people. Now I believe they are demanding not repression, but solutions."

Many Working to Promote FFA Rodeo

Working behind the scenes in preparation for the annual Future Farmers Rodeo to be this Friday and Saturday night are ten committees.

Johnny Breeding is in charge of the ticket sales. Mike Voss and Jack Dougan will make preparations for the rodeo parade to be Friday afternoon.

Gary Rowe heads the junior rodeo queen contest from which a grade school queen will be chosen. Gary Golden and Carroll Bock will head the junior bull riding competition.

In charge of the refreshments to be sold during the rodeo will be Jerry Don Still, Sidney Hollis and Montie Garner.

Gary McRoy is in charge of obtaining livestock and caring for it while Benton Fincher and Jack Tompkins will manage the arena.

Publicity is the work of Danny Key and Larry East. Contest entries are to be filed with Mike Voss and Jack Dougan.

Co-chairmen of this year's cleanup committee are Danny Turner and Mike Tolleson.

NEW YORK (AP)—Student uprisings spread today from Columbia University on the fringe of Harlem to a Long Island University center in downtown Brooklyn.

About 15 persons identifying themselves as members of the Students Organization for Black Unity took over the third-floor office of the provost of the LIU Brooklyn campus, Dr. William Lai. One of them, reached by telephone, said neither Lai nor his deputy, William Love, would be permitted to come to the phone.

Another 50 students were gathered outside the barricaded office and sat on the floor.

An official of the Brooklyn Congress of Racial Equality said the students action was directed at getting more scholarships for Negroes, more Negro faculty, courses on Negro history and culture and higher pay for nonacademic staff members.

The CORE official, Barry Solomon, said the students also opposed the proposed sale of the Brooklyn campus, which is located in the old Brooklyn Paramount building.

At Columbia, demonstrators pushed their protest into a third day, demanding boycott of classes and blocking some students who tried to get to classrooms with human barricades.

They also continued to hold a classroom building and the university president's office.

Columbia officials gave no figures on the numbers involved, but a compilation of student estimates was that about 420 persons were involved.

Reporters were kept out of the demonstrator-occupied buildings.

The university locked up buildings overnight and sealed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The president of the Arkansas Rural Education Association proposed Wednesday a distribution plan of state money to schools that he said would equalize educational opportunities for all public school children in the state.

Under the plan by James A. Martin, a school district such as Pulaski County would receive no money from the state until expenditure per pupil at Beedeville, where Martin is superintendent, equaled an established average expenditure.

Martin made the remarks after a meeting of a special committee appointed by the Arkansas Legislative Council to draw up a new formula for distributing state money to schools.

"In accepting responsibility for setting up a free system of education, the state has also the responsibility of equalizing the amount of money spend on a child's education, regardless of where he may live," Martin said.

One Job for Every 10
Seeking Them

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Youth Opportunity Council estimated Wednesday that there would be only one job for every 10 young people seeking summer work this year.

Chairman Marvin Taylor of Little Rock said that young people from low income families would have priority for most jobs.

Representatives of the state Employment Security Division said summer Neighborhood Youth Corps programs would absorb about 4,100 youths for 10 weeks instead of 12 because of cutback in federal spending.

The ESD said placement of girls, especially those from low income families, is a special problem. The division said the council had agreed to explore the problem.

North Vietnam Pushes

WASHINGTON (AP)—High administration officials say North Vietnam appears to be mounting a major campaign aimed at getting the United States to accept Warsaw as a site for peace talks.

That was their assessment of Poland's reported appeal to six embassies in Warsaw to exert influence in bringing preliminary peace talks on ending the Vietnam war to the Communist nation's capital.

President Johnson meanwhile was reported prepared to carry on prolonged, hard-nosed negotiations with North Vietnam over the site.

And U.S. officials forecast that the longer the present diplomatic sparring continues the more Johnson will harden his resolve not to give way on this first issue of what they maintain will turn out to be a long and painful peace-making process.

Administration insiders say

SAIGON (AP)—Fewer U.S. and enemy casualties were recorded in the Vietnam war last week, while the number of South Vietnamese troops killed increased.

The casualty pattern reflected the sporadic fighting across the country, with no sustained ground action but a number of sharp clashes at various points.

In its weekly summary, the U.S. Command said 287 Americans were killed in action last week, compared with 363 a week earlier. There were 1,458 Americans wounded last week, down more than 1,000 from 2,694 the previous week.

Of the wounded last week, 736 required hospitalization. South Vietnamese headquarters said 330 government troops were killed last week, a sharp rise from 293 a week earlier.

The number of wounded last week was 980, a small drop from 985 the previous week. Thirty government troops were reported missing or captured, two less than the week before.

The U.S. and South Vietnamese commands said 1,899 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed last week, compared with 3,071 the week before.

Move Aimed at Enemy
Buildup

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—South Vietnamese paratroopers have moved close to a Shau Valley to cut off North Vietnamese building up manpower and supplies there for a possible blow at Hue or other northern cities, military spokesmen said today.

The U.S. 1st Cavalry Division, in a directive, warned its officers to expect a high level of enemy action, possibly an offensive in late April or early May in the Hue area.

In Saigon, the National Police Directorate told the people the enemy was planning another big attack on the capital.

The South Vietnamese move to positions east of a Shau Valley could be the start of a major drive against that North Vietnamese stronghold stretching 25 miles along the border of Laos in the far north.

Allied forces have not ventured into the valley in force in the two years since North Vietnamese troops overran the U.S. Special Forces camp at a Shau and turned the valley into their biggest supply base in South Vietnam.

After round-the-clock pounding of the valley by U.S. B52 bombers, nearly 2,000 South Vietnamese paratroopers launched Operation Lam Son last Friday, but it was not announced until today for security reasons.

A government communique, giving the first report of significant action, said the paratroopers destroyed 10 North Vietnamese three-quarter-ton trucks and seized 330 pounds of dynamite 16 miles southwest of Hue on Highway 547.

North Vietnamese war materials and troops moved down the Ho Chi Minh trail through Laos into the A Shau Valley and from here are funneled along Highway 547 eastward to the Hue area.

The B52s kept up their campaign today, again attacking suspected troops concentrations, trucks, bivouac areas and bunkers. Recent intelligence reports have told of troops and materials massing in the valley and of new roads being built, leading U.S. officers to believe a new enemy offensive against Hue may be building up.

That means that clocks should be moved ahead one hour at 2 a.m., CST, to 3 a.m., Daylight Saving Time.

DST ends on the last Sunday in October—Oct. 27.

This will be the second straight year for Arkansas to go on DST with other states. Under the Uniform Time Act of 1966, a state must go on daylight time unless its legislature specifically exempts it from the law.

TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP)—The state Education Department has awarded this month high school diplomas to seven Tucker Prison Farm inmates.

This was the first time in the history of the penitentiary that any convict prepared for and received a diploma while he was in prison, authorities said.

The inmates prepared for the tests in three months of intensive study under the direction of Mrs. Jack Finch, educational supervisor here. The average age of the high school dropouts was 20 to 26 years old.

Using Power in Politics Takes Ability

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic governors have affirmed what their Republican counterparts had been proving for 18 months: Apparent political power and the ability to use it are two different things.

The 26 Republican governors and the 24 Democrats have been unable to create consensus among themselves on a presidential nominee for their respective parties.

The Democrats talked about it in St. Louis April 15 and got nowhere. Republicans chose more fashionable retreats for their disagreement—White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Jackson Hole, Wyo., Palm Beach, Fla.

There are individual commitments to candidates in each party, but no one has welded a governors' bloc of major benefit to a single candidate.

It's possible many governors can't exercise total control over their national convention delegations.

Democrat Harold Hughes of Iowa acknowledged this difficulty. Hughes, a Senate candidate, said people supporting his candidacy include Democrats backing all three top contenders for the presidential nomination, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

A McCarthy agent put it more succinctly: "If Hughes comes out for Bobby our kids in Iowa will go after him."

Hughes evidently is not alone in that situation. His Democratic gubernatorial colleagues, feeling the pressure for presidential commitments and hoping to ease it, were generally delighted to adopt a statement in St. Louis promising decisions of conscience on the White House contest—but not right now.

Similarly, Republican governors in June 1967 advocated that uncommitted delegations be sent to the GOP convention.

Texas Gov. John B. Connally and Calvin L. Rampton of Utah, both Johnson allies, were two of the men who asked that the Democratic governors meet in St. Louis earlier this month.

Behind their request, it appeared, was a concern that with President Johnson out of the race, there might be a gubernatorial rush to the Kennedy camp. Administration loyalists wanted to slow things down and insure that Humphrey support was not foreclosed even before he announced his candidacy.

But there was no rush to Kennedy.

A small minority of the 26 Republican governors has been trying to line up presidential commitments among their colleagues almost since 1964, with an identical lack of success.

Like the Democrats, the Republican governors have consistently denied they are out to stop anybody in the presidential race. In their case, anybody means Richard M. Nixon.

So far, the governors have been true to their statement.

Chance for Phone Strike End Seen

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The union leader directing the eight-day-old nationwide telephone strike says chances look good for breaking the deadlock in wage talks.

More than 200,000 members of President Joseph A. Beirne's AFL-CIO Communications Workers union are involved in the walkout in about 40 states, but there has been little effect on most telephone service across the country.

"At this point, I can report definitely that things are looking up," Beirne said Wednesday of continuing informal talks with Bell Telephone System officials.

Beirne said negotiators on both sides now favor abandoning the 18-month wage reopener provision—which set off the first nationwide telephone strike in 21 years—and writing a new three-year agreement.

"Talks have centered on a brand new contractual agreement, to give parties an opportunity to break out of the impasse we had reached prior to the start of the strike," Beirne said in a statement.

The union, before launching the strike of telephone installers, operators, linemen, repairmen, clerks and other workers, rejected a company offer of a 7.5 per cent wage increase over 18 months. The company said at the time the union was demanding 10.5 per cent.

Telephone installers, who set the wage pattern in the industry, averaged $3.27 per hour before the strike and other telephone workers averaged $2.70.

"Chances look good, but there are many knotty problems to resolve," Beirne said of talks with company officials.

Talks originally were confined to wage matters, including pay differentials for various jobs and geographical areas. Discussing a completely new contract adds such matters as pensions, health and life insurance and working conditions to the agenda.

Dispute Casts Shadow Over Defense Plan

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force and civilian analysts differ sharply in a Pentagon intelligence dispute already casting a shadow over U.S. plans to defend against Soviet bombers of the 1970s.

Basically at issue is the soundness of a national-level assessment that the Soviets will not develop a supersonic strategic bomber with far-reaching missiles during the next six years.

Gen. John P. McConnell, Air Force chief of staff, thinks they will and argues the United States should build some new 2,000 mile-per-hour interceptors able to shoot them down.

But Robert S. McNamara, just before he left office as secretary of defense, decided indications were that the Soviet bomber threat actually would decline. He rejected the Air Force's requested interceptor, the F12.

Instead, McNamara went along with his civilian planners who figured $1 billion could be saved if the Air Force put a new missile system in an existing fighter, the F106, part of the present air defense network.

Although this plane was developed in the 1950s, cost-effectiveness studies showed that a souped-up version known as the F106X would be just as good as the Mach 3 F12, if a few hundred miles an hour slower.

McNamara also based his thinking on the National Intelligence Estimate (NIE) of what the Soviets might be expected to do in the area of strategic bombers between now and 1976, the period in question.

This projection, drawn up about last October, was that the Soviet Union would stick generally with the strategic bomber force it already has. This includes 155 bombers capable of reaching the United States without refueling.

McConnell, testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee in February, said, "I don't agree with" and "I don't subscribe to" the NIE view.

The four-star general said he felt the Soviets would indeed put into operation a new supersonic

THREE-BED ROOM HOUSE

Need a spacious three-bedroom house? This house plan was designed to meet the needs of modern living.

A large formal living-dining area is provided with an entry immediately off the front foyer. The formal dining area is adjacent to the kitchen, and is served from a parallel kitchen through the sliding door. The parallel kitchen provides ample space for meal preparation with spacious counters and overhead cabinets. The bar which separates the family living area from the kitchen incorporates under counter storage as well as suspended storage cabinets from the ceiling.

The family area is conveniently located so that it is accessible from the front foyer, sleeping area and provides an outside entrance from the carport. The wall between the utility room and family area includes bookshelves which open into the family area and a utility closet which opens into the utility room. The utility room provides ample space for washer, dryer, and hand sink with counter space adjacent to the sink. Overhead storage cabinets are provided to make this utility area convenient to the back yard.

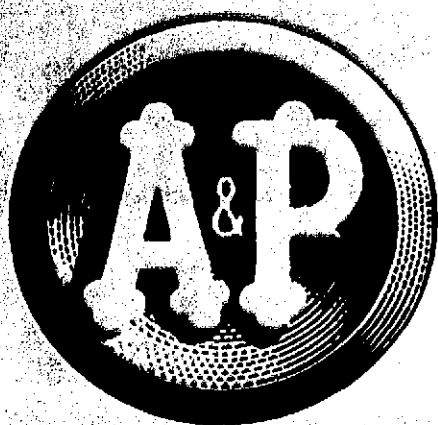

Each of the spacious bedrooms provide ample clothes closet space.

Both bathrooms are compartmented for convenience and utilization. Dressing rooms are provided adjacent to each of the baths.

Working drawings of this plan can be obtained from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Office, free of charge, by requesting a copy of Plan No. 667601.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help US! this newspaper.

THIS SIDE OF THE STORY LOOKS BLACK

Dear Helen: My sister is 14 and I am 12. One day while my parents were working, she got up from the table and threw hot soup at me. I went upstairs crying while she stood there laughing. All my folks said to her when they got home was, "You should not have done that."

Two days later we were in the bedroom and she was putting hot oil on her hair. It burned her just a tiny bit, so I smiled because she made a funny face. I didn't dare laugh. Even so, she dumped the oil on top of my head. When we came to dinner my mother yelled and screamed and hit me because I was a mess. After I explained, she still said I caused the trouble because I was always bugging my sister.

Now I am grounded for two months, without even TV. I have to eat my dinners alone, and don't get an allowance. Please tell me, who bugs who at my house?—ALWAYS THE WORM

Dear Worm: Sounds like everybody is kind of buggy at your house—also ants!

While I doubt that you're ALWAYS the innocent victim, I'm quite sure your sister deserves at least half the blame—and maybe a lot more than half.

Too bad your parents can't realize that playing favorites gets them disliked by ALL the kids, even their favorite. —H

P.S. It's also too bad I haven't seen the other two sides to this picture. If YOU'D try to see them, perhaps you wouldn't be writing to me. —H

Dear Helen: I am 20 and have a baby. I was married, but we separated in three months. Now I'm living with my folks. The trouble is, they treat me like a child, and they take over training my little boy, as if he were my brother, not my son. They won't let me have any say at all and, as he gets older, it gets worse.

Now I've met a fine man that I could really love. He wants to marry me and adopt my baby. He's everything my first husband wasn't.

Buy my parents won't let me date until next year. They say one foolish mistake is enough, and I need to settle down.

Helen, if I'm old enough to work, support my son, be married and divorced, shouldn't I be old enough to decide on how I'll live my life? —BOSS

Dear Bossed: If you're old enough for all these things, why are you living at home? People who really want to live their own lives, don't run back to Mama. —H

PERSONAL TO "SEEING DOUBLE" — Flake off Your "identical twin" stories give me credibility-gaps.

Funny thing—a hoaxer never stops with just one letter, so he almost always gives himself away. —H
